

Guido Vetere

Intelligenze aliene

Linguaggio e vita degli automi

Con la comparsa degli automi parlanti, ultima frontiera dell'intelligenza artificiale, l'umanità non si confronta solo con una nuova tecnologia, ma è chiamata a riflettere sul proprio rapporto con il linguaggio. Come convivere con oggetti-soggetti che esercitano, in modi nuovi e inattesi, la nostra più intima facoltà?

find out more

La grande abbuffata

Il cinema italiano e la spinta al consumo

a cura di Laura Busetta
e Federico Vitella

ricerche Marsilio

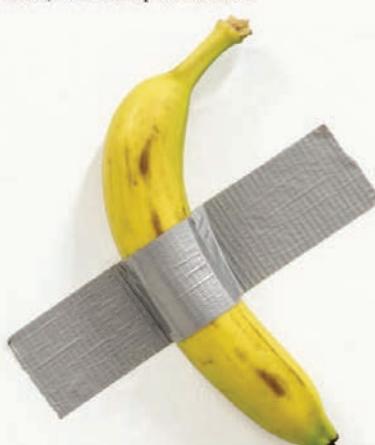

Attraverso dodici casi di studio esemplari, il volume esplora il contributo versato dal cinema alla diffusione nazionale della nuova cultura dei consumi, nei cruciali anni compresi tra il 1950 e il 1973.

find out more

Luca Beatrice La commedia dell'arte

Dietro le quinte del contemporaneo tra musei, mercato e provocazioni

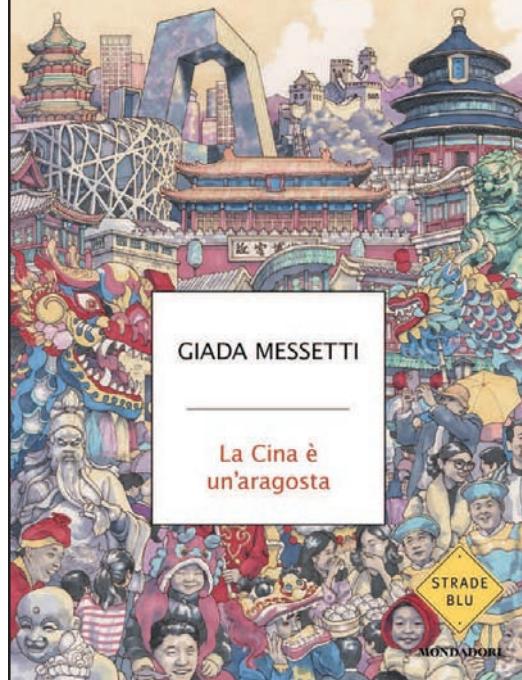

Marsilio NODI

L'autore si interroga sul destino dell'arte nell'era degli influencer e degli «artivisti», dove sembrano prevalere l'appiattimento su alcuni temi alla moda e la rincorsa dell'ultima causa umanitaria, mentre si rinuncia a realizzare opere epocali capaci di entrare in pianta stabile nel nostro patrimonio culturale.

find out more

COME STA CAMBIANDO IL GIGANTE ASIATICO

GIADA MESSETTI

La Cina è
un'aragosta

MONDADORI

Benché al momento soffra di seri problemi interni, come l'invecchiamento della popolazione, il rallentamento della crescita, la disoccupazione giovanile e la crisi immobiliare, la Cina è ancora in ascesa e capace di ridefinire le dinamiche economiche e geopolitiche del mondo.

find out more

cuori di terra

BERNARDINO BONZANI MONICA MORINI

Memoria per i sette fratelli Cervi

corsiero editore

Questo testo teatrale è uno spettacolo vincitore del Premio Scenario per Ustica. Ha debuttato nel 2003 nella rassegna "Il Paese dei Raccontatori" e ha all'attivo centinaia di rappresentazioni in tutta Italia fino alla Svizzera e continua a vivere nei teatri e nei festival per un pubblico adulto e per le nuove generazioni.

find out more

STEFANO MASSINI

DONALD

STORIA MOLTO PIÙ CHE LEGGENDARIA
DI UN GOLDEN MAN

FINAUDI

Sembra che l'esistenza di ogni essere umano si giochi su un totale di dieci minuti, la somma di quei fatidici istanti in cui nelle nostre vite succede qualcosa di decisivo. Questo libro è la storia dei dieci minuti di un uomo che da quando ha avuto coscienza di sé ha sempre desiderato una cosa soltanto: il dominio.

find out more

Andrea Morniroli
Gea Scancarello

NON FACCIAMO DEL BENE

Inchiesta
sul lavoro sociale
tra agire politico
e funzione pubblica

Occhielli

Il mondo del lavoro e dell'impresa sociale oltre i luoghi comuni e le visioni di comodo. Un appello appassionato perché una professione, troppo spesso confusa con una missione, ritrovi la dimensione che deve avere: quella politica.

find out more

Alice Facchini

Poveri noi

La classe media in bilico

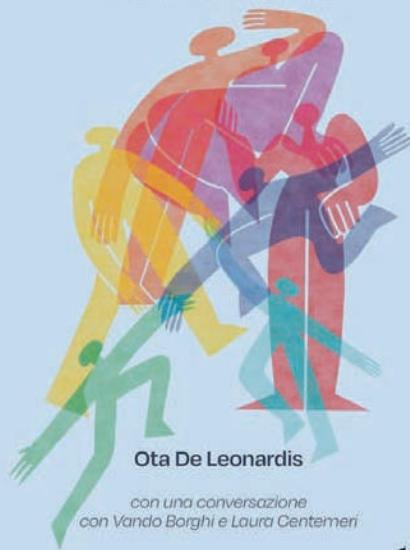

«In Italia il 10% delle famiglie più benestanti detiene il 60% della ricchezza, mentre quasi sei milioni di persone vivono in povertà assoluta. Ecco perché si può dire che, oggi ancor più di ieri, siamo tutti più poveri».

find out more

Preferirei di sì

Idee di riproduzione sociale sulle macerie del welfare

Ota De Leonardis

con una conversazione
con Vanda Borghi e Laura Centemeri

Viviamo un tempo nel quale la forza dell'opposizione non ha presa sulla potenza distruttiva di un (dis)ordine sociale autoritario che fa a pezzi le infrastrutture fondamentali della vita quotidiana delle persone, assoggettandole all'imperativo della redditività. Sulle macerie di questo (dis)ordine c'è chi ne ricompone i pezzi...

find out more

GIUSEPPE SABELLA

LA GRANDE TRANSIZIONE DEL CAPITALISMO

DIBATTITO

Il capitalismo funziona per cicli economici. Quando la sua potenza espansiva viene meno, il sistema si riorganizza. In questo frangente, i grandi magnati del capitale avviano una profonda trasformazione economica, politica e culturale: il digitale, i social media, l'intelligenza artificiale e l'energia pulita sono i driver di questa metamorfosi.

find out more

KERRY BROWN PERCHÉ TAIWAN CONTA

BREVE STORIA DI UNA PICCOLA ISOLA
CHE DECIDE IL NOSTRO FUTURO

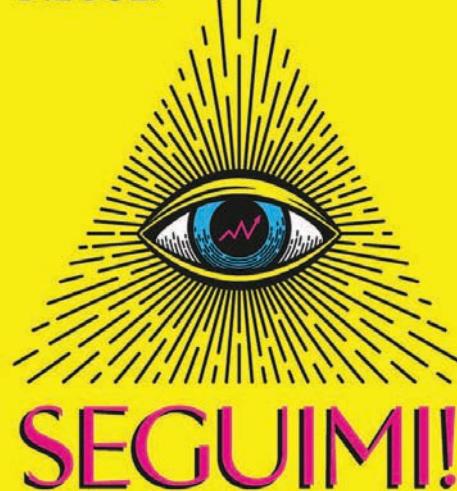

Che cosa significa essere taiwanese oggi? Essere considerati - per un caso alla nascita - al centro della sfida geopolitica probabilmente più seria del XXI secolo? Pur essendo un'isola così piccola, Taiwan conta molto più di quello che sembra e tenerla d'occhio diventa importante.

find out more

GIANLUCA DIEGOLI

SEGUIMI!

IL MARKETING COME CULTO, IL CULTO COME MARKETING

UTET

Il volume descrive l'evoluzione del marketing, che ha trasformato la semplice fedeltà al marchio in una vera e propria forma di culto. Partendo dall'esempio di Apple e del suo "Think different", l'autore analizza come il consumo non sia più legato a prodotti specifici, ma a pratiche e stili di vita, creando nuove forme di devozione.

find out more

I Marx del Pci

Protagonisti, stagioni, scuole

A cura di Lelio La Porta e Guido Liguori

Bordeaux

Attraverso una molteplicità di voci e contributi, questo libro ricostruisce le diverse letture di Marx che nutrirono la cultura dei comunisti italiani, un patrimonio ideale da riscoprire e studiare ancora.

find out more

Federico Germani
Giovanni Spitale

MI FA MALE LA SCIENZA

SPERANZE, CONFLITTI
E IL FUTURO
DELLA CONOSCENZA

Prefazione di
Giacomo Moro Mauretto

Federico Germani e Giovanni Spitale esplorano le meraviglie e le contraddizioni della scienza: la sua straordinaria capacità di espandere i confini del sapere, ma anche le sue fragilità, i suoi inciampi e le forze che la influenzano.

find out more

KENNETH ROGOFF

L'impero del dollaro

Lo sguardo di un insider su sette turbulenti decenni di finanza globale e il futuro che ci attende

Prefazione di Andrea Sironi

Esaminando come il Dollaro abbia prevalso a lungo, nonostante l'insoddisfazione della maggior parte dei paesi nei confronti del sistema monetario consolidato, Rogoff mostra come un potere fuori controllo e un insieme di privilegi senza paragoni possano portare presto a una maggiore instabilità finanziaria a livello mondiale.

find out more

Alessandro Leonardi
5000

L'ITALIA E IL SUO FUTURO

La fine della Repubblica
e l'ascesa del nuovo mondo

DIARKOS

Alessandro Leonardi analizza diversi scenari futuri, dalla frammentazione dell'ordine nazionale all'instaurazione di un regime autoritario, fino a eventi estremi di matrice internazionale, con al centro i grandi cambiamenti di carattere geopolitico, economico e ambientale.

find out more

Enrico Piaggio L'uomo della Vespa

a cura di Basilio Perri

Graphofeel

La storia di Enrico Piaggio, il geniale industriale che nell'immediato dopoguerra credette nel progetto di un mezzo di trasporto dalla carrozzeria improbabile, adatto a essere guidato da tutti.

find out more

ALESSANDRO GIRAUDO

ORO, ARGENTO E SCINTILLANTI FOLLIE

Storie dei metalli del re

Oro e argento sono il simulacro del desiderio di ricchezza e possesso che ha accompagnato ogni epoca storica, sotto le spoglie di tesori di guerra, lingotti, monete, statue e gioielli luccicanti, ancora oggi considerati un bene rifugio, il porto più sicuro nei momenti di tempesta geopolitica.

find out more

Stefano
Gallo

PRIMO MAGGIO

La dignità del lavoro accomuna e salda i destini dell'intera società. La storia globale di una data sempre rivolta al futuro.

La Festa internazionale dei lavoratori, istituita a Parigi nel 1889 in ricordo della rivolta di Haymarket e della lotta per una giornata lavorativa di 8 ore, si diffonde rapidamente come simbolo di resistenza...

find out more

MASSIMO LAPUCCI STEFANO LUCCHINI

Perché non c'è sostenibilità senza Health, Human e Happiness

RITROVARE L'UMANO

ESG + H

gli Scarabei

Baldini+Castoldi

I due autori disegnano un vero e proprio manifesto pragmatico sugli ESG del futuro e ci accompagnano alla riscoperta di quella pulsione, già manifestata nel secolo dei Lumi, di riportare al centro la dignità della Persona come perseguitamento di un wellbeing collettivo.

find out more

Giuseppe Abbonizio, Paolo Armellini, Giulio Battioni
Francesco Carlesi, Raimondo Fabbri, Flavio Felice
Valeria Ferrari, Roberta Fidanzia, Aldo Meccariello,
Luca Mencacci, Maurizio Serio, Leopoldo Tondelli

Lo stato dell' Unione Europea

Criticità di una sinfonia incompiuta

Asterios

L'Unione Europea non pretende certo di esaurire l'esperienza politica europea, quanto piuttosto di continuare e stimolare l'esplorazione dei limiti del possibile. Con l'umiltà di doverli riconoscere e l'ambizione di volerli superare.

find out more

RAINER
ZITELMANN

Vietnam, Polonia e la via alla ricchezza

COME
LE NAZIONI
POSSONO SCONFIGGERE,
LA POVERTÀ

gli Scarabei

Baldini+Castoldi

L'economia di mercato ha portato a un declino della povertà senza precedenti, anche se quasi il 10% della popolazione mondiale vive ancora oggi in condizioni di povertà estrema. Prendendo Vietnam e Polonia come casi di studio, Zitelmann ne evidenzia le incredibili dinamiche di sviluppo e gli insegnamenti che si possono trarre per un progresso globale.

find out more

LUCA PISAPIA

FARE GOL NON SERVE A NIENTE

Il pallone nella rete della finanza

La storia del calcio letta attraverso le lenti della società, dell'economia e della politica, perché gli interessi in gioco sono molto diversi dal segnare un gol o vincere un campionato. Il pallone, oramai e da sempre, è un sofisticato prodotto del capitale.

find out more

Gabriele
Giacomini

Il trilemma
della libertà
Stati, cittadini,
compagnie digitali

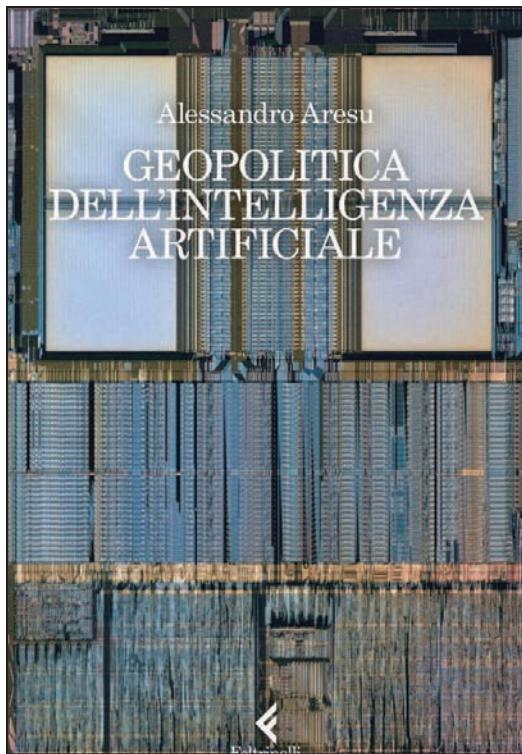

La nave di Teseo

Krisis - Collana diretta da Massimo Cacciari e Natalino Iriti

E' estremamente difficile garantire, contemporaneamente, la libertà dei cittadini, un potere statale solido e una crescita imponente delle aziende digitali. Questo è quello che viene definito il "trilemma della libertà digitale". Trovare un equilibrio tra le necessità e gli obiettivi dei tre protagonisti è una delle sfide che le nostre società devono affrontare.

find out more

Alessandro Aresu

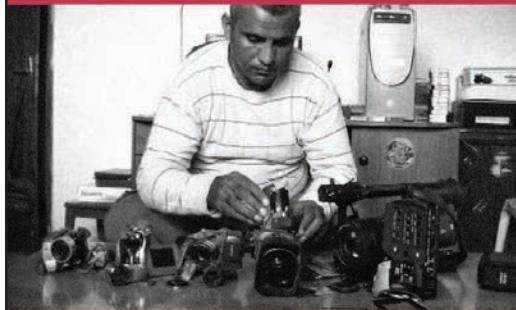

GEOPOLITICA DELL'INTELLIGENZA ARTIFICIALE

Come sono nate e come funzionano le macchine "pensanti"? E quali saranno le ripercussioni sugli equilibri mondiali? L'intelligenza artificiale è l'invenzione definitiva dell'umanità. Alessandro Aresu ci racconta l'intreccio di relazioni tra filosofi, scienziati e imprenditori che stanno plasmando questo mondo.

find out more

THE INTELLECT HANDBOOK OF

Documentary

EDITED BY KATE NASH
DEANE WILLIAMS

The Handbook tackles key topics and debates – from the role of documentary in post-truth culture to the rise of streaming giants (and the implications for national documentary cultures) and the shifting (increasingly hybrid) practices of documentary activism and the professionalization of impact.

find out more

ANALOG SUPERPOWERS

How Twentieth-Century Technology Theft Built the National Security State

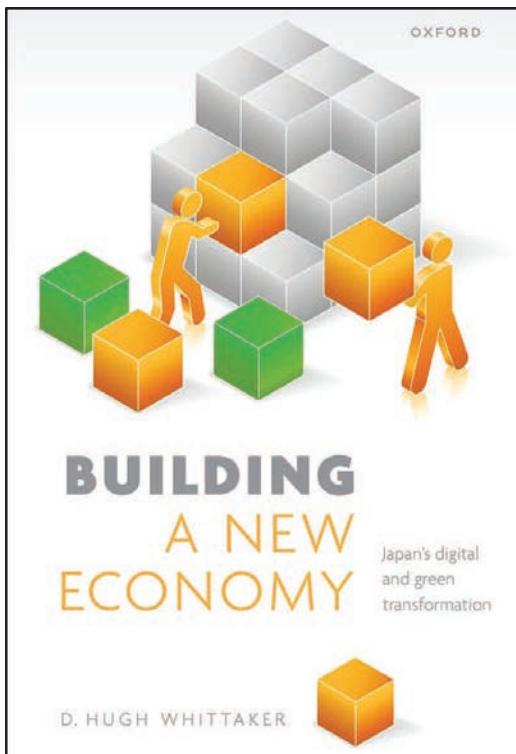

KATHERINE C. EPSTEIN

A gripping history that spans law, international affairs, and top-secret technology to unmask the tension between intellectual property rights and national security.

find out more

BUILDING A NEW ECONOMY

Japan's digital and green transformation

D. HUGH WHITTAKER

Japan is building a new economy through digital and green transformation, balancing market forces and state control. Institutional changes aim to create a more adaptive model. 'Society 5.0' and 'sustainable capitalism' focus on people, but achieving true inclusivity remains a challenge.

find out more

KARA SWISHER

An instant New York Times bestseller from award-winning journalist Kara Swisher, Burn Book is a "highly readable...bawdy, brash, and compulsively thought-provoking" account of the tech industry and its founders who wanted to change the world but broke it instead.

find out more

Creative Work Beyond Precarity

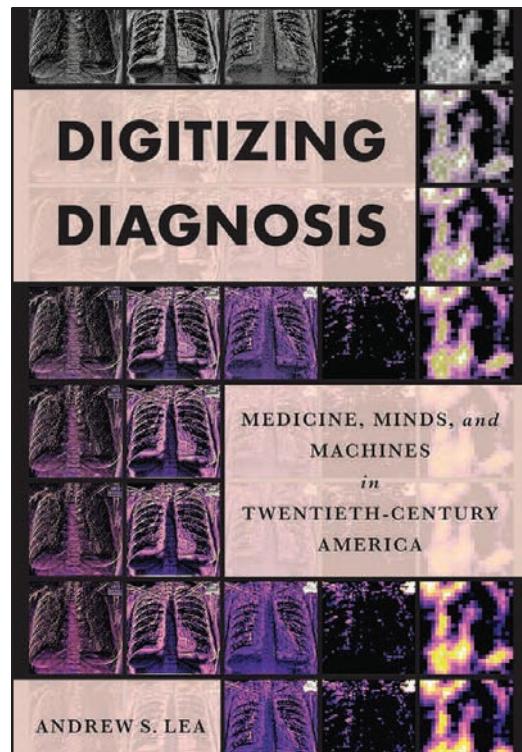

Learning to Work Together

TIM BUTCHER

find out more

This book examines how freelancers can build sustainable careers in the uncertain creative economy. It explores the shift from arts work to creative labor, highlighting entrepreneurial learning and collaborative practices as alternatives to individual careers.

Digitizing Diagnosis explores the history of computerized medical diagnosis, tracing its evolution from the 1950s. Andrew Lea examines how digital tools reshaped medical reasoning, patient identity, and disease classification, raising ethical and philosophical questions that remain relevant today.

find out more

Finance and the Rise of Neoliberalism in America

BRIAN JUDGE

This book challenges the conventional story of neoliberalism, arguing that financialization enabled its rise rather than resulted from deregulation. Brian Judge explores how liberalism's crisis led to financial solutions that reshaped governance, with case studies illustrating the profound impact on democracy.

find out more

One Day I'll Work For Myself

THE DREAM AND DELUSION THAT CONQUERED AMERICA

Benjamin C. Waterhouse

One Day I'll Work for Myself explores the allure and reality of self-employment in America. Benjamin C. Waterhouse traces how economic struggles fueled the rise of entrepreneurship, revealing its promises and pitfalls. Through vivid stories, he examines the cultural and financial forces shaping the modern hustle

find out more

REPUTATIONS AT STAKE

WILLIAM S. HARVEY

The book explores the power and fragility of reputation in business, politics, and society. William S. Harvey examines how reputations are built, threatened, and recovered, using real-world examples from corporations, governments, and individuals to reveal the dynamics shaping public perception.

find out more

SEARCHING FOR TRUST IN THE GLOBAL ECONOMY

JEANNE M. BRETT and TYREE D. MITCHELL

The book examines how trust is built in international business. Jeanne M. Brett and Tyree D. Mitchell analyze cultural differences in trust formation, offering a framework for managers navigating global partnerships. Real-world examples highlight the impact of trust on economic relationships.

find out more

THE CEO PLAYBOOK FOR STRATEGIC TRANSFORMATION

SCOTT A. SNELL

READ BY STEPHEN R. THORNE

rb media
TANTOR MEDIA

The CEO Playbook for Strategic Transformation provides leaders with a framework to navigate major organizational change. Scott A. Snell outlines four key factors—urgency, stakeholder engagement, mobilization, and agility—that determine success, offering practical insights for CEOs facing transformation challenges.

find out more

CHRISTIAN TERWIESCH AND KARL ULRICH

THE INNOVATION TOURNAMENT HANDBOOK

A Step-by-Step Guide to Finding Exceptional Solutions to Any Challenge

The Innovation Tournament Handbook provides a structured approach to solving complex problems through innovation tournaments. Written by Wharton professors Christian Terwiesch and Karl Ulrich, it offers practical strategies to generate and refine exceptional ideas for business and beyond.

find out more

The Management of Innovation

MANAGING AND CREATING TECHNOLOGY CAPITAL

Alberto Galasso

find out more

The Rocket Lab

Maurice Zucrow, Purdue University, and America's Race to Space

The Rocket Lab explores the life and contributions of Maurice Zucrow, a pioneering aerospace engineer at Purdue University. It highlights his role in advancing jet and rocket propulsion, shaping America's space race, and educating the first generation of aerospace engineers.

find out more

The WAY WE BUILD

Restoring Dignity to Construction Work

MARK ERLICH

The book examines the evolution of construction work, highlighting its challenges and the decline of unionized labor. Written by Mark Erlich, it explores wage theft, discrimination, and the impact of technology, while proposing strategies to restore dignity and stability to the industry.

find out more

The Politics and Social Visions examines ideological conflicts and solidarity within the EU, focusing on crises like the Eurozone and refugee challenges. Written by Maurizio Ferrera, it explores how political ideologies shape European integration and the evolving communal ethos among member states.

find out more

The Fiery Spirits explores the radical parliamentarians and protestors who shaped the English Revolution. Written by John Rees, it highlights figures like Henry Marten and William Strode, showing how their actions led to the defeat of Charles I and the establishment of a republic in 1649.

find out more

The Street Economist by Axel Kaiser presents fifteen essential economic lessons in a clear and accessible way. It challenges traditional academic approaches, explaining key concepts like prices, inflation, and competition in simple terms, making economics understandable for everyone.

find out more

The Stop and Think challenges conventional political and economic narratives, arguing that productivity—not government intervention—is the key to prosperity. Written by Daniel M. Wentland, it debunks myths about economic dependency and promotes an individual-driven approach to success.

find out more

QUALITATIVE DATA ANALYSIS

with ChatGPT and QualCoder

A STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE TO AI-POWERED CODING AND THEMATIC ANALYSIS

RAFIQ MUHAMMAD, MD, MIHMEP, PH.D.

This book provides a practical guide to AI-powered coding and thematic analysis. Written by Muhammad Rafiq, it explains how to integrate ChatGPT with QualCoder to streamline qualitative research, enhance coding efficiency, and generate deeper insights.

find out more

Reconfiguring
Racial Capitalism

South Africa
in the Chinese Century

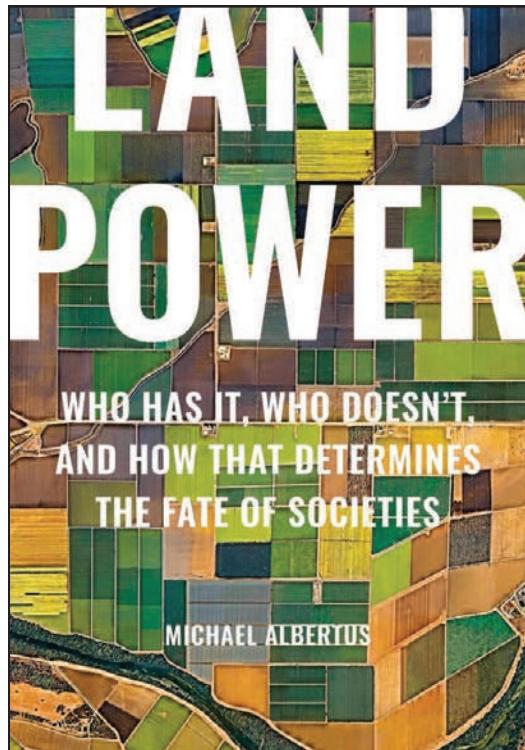

MINGWEI HUANG

find out more

The Reconfiguring Racial Capitalism examines the evolving dynamics of racial capitalism in South Africa amid China's growing economic influence. Written by Mingwei Huang, it explores how historical structures of white supremacy and colonialism persist and transform within the framework of Sino-South African economic relations.

The book examines how land ownership shapes societies, influencing prosperity, inequality, and sustainability. Written by Michael Albertus, it explores historical land reallocations, colonialism, and modern policies, revealing how control over land determines economic and political outcomes.

find out more

The book examines how digital tools reshape the lives of refugees in cities across Latin America, Africa, and Southeast Asia. Written by Charles Martin-Shields, it explores how displaced communities use technology to integrate into urban economies, navigate social networks, and influence political landscapes.

find out more

Cue the Sun! explores the origins and impact of reality television, tracing its evolution from early radio experiments to its dominance in modern pop culture. Written by Emily Nussbaum, it examines the genre's pioneers, ethical dilemmas, and its influence on entertainment and society.

find out more

Cases on Entrepreneurship and Diversity explores diverse entrepreneurial journeys through real-world case studies. Edited by Spinder Dhaliwal, it provides insights into how different backgrounds shape business ventures, offering practical lessons for educators, students, and professionals in entrepreneurship.

find out more

What if being lucky wasn't just chance but a skill you could master? Learn to identify and act on serendipity to lead a more joyful, purposeful, and successful life!

'A wise, exciting and life-changing book' Arianna Huffington, author of Thrive

find out more

The book examines the legitimacy and effectiveness of corporate compliance in preventing and detecting corporate crime. Edited by Stefano Manacorda and Francesco Centonze, it explores historical, cultural, and behavioral aspects, offering insights into risk management and regulatory strategies.

find out more

The book critically examines the declining status of creative workers in contemporary societies. Written by Xin Gu, it explores how neoliberal creativity discourse has reshaped cultural industries, narrowing career pathways and fostering exploitative conditions, while advocating for a renewed artist critique.

find out more

The book explores how online learning can be structured to center identity, social systems, and justice-oriented pedagogy. Edited by Xeturah Woodley and Mary Rice, it integrates critical race theory, feminist studies, and culturally responsive teaching to create inclusive and transformative educational experiences.

find out more

The Diversity: A Key Idea for Business and Society explores how diversity influences business and society, shaping workforce dynamics, economic policies, and social structures. Written by Mustafa F. Özbilgin, it examines the definitions, management, and regulation of diversity across various disciplines.

find out more

"Geopolitics of Digital Heritage" explores the intersection of technology, culture, and power in preserving digital heritage. It examines global policies, ethical challenges, and the role of digital archives in shaping historical narratives and cultural identity.

find out more

"Hitler's Atomic Bomb" investigates the myths and realities surrounding Nazi Germany's nuclear ambitions. It explores historical evidence, scientific developments, and the lasting impact of Auschwitz and Hiroshima, revealing the complex legacy of wartime atomic research.

find out more

Santiago Capraro, Carlo Panico and Luis Daniel Torres-González

The book offers a monetary perspective on the link between economic inequality and slow growth. It examines how wealth concentration affects demand, investment, and financial stability, providing insights into policy solutions for a more balanced economy.

find out more

"Organizational Change and Relational Resources" explores how relationships and social capital influence transformation within organizations. It examines the role of trust, collaboration, and networks in driving successful change and fostering resilience in dynamic environments.

find out more

The book examines how educational attainment has deepened political and cultural divides in the U.S. It explores the diploma gap's role in shaping voter behavior, identity, and partisan conflict, revealing its impact on modern American politics.

find out more

The book explores how private equity investments reshape local economies. It examines their impact on businesses, communities, and labor, revealing the consequences of financial strategies that prioritize profit over long-term local stability.

find out more

"Projects, Government, and Public Policy" examines the interplay between project management and governance in shaping public policy. It investigates how strategic initiatives influence decision-making, resource allocation, and societal outcomes within governmental frameworks.

find out more

"The European Harmonization of National Accounting Rules" assesses the impact of Directive 2013/34/EU on financial reporting across Europe. It evaluates how different countries have implemented the directive, highlighting challenges, adaptations, and its role in standardizing accounting practices.

find out more

The author analyzes how control mechanisms influence productivity, motivation, and autonomy in remote settings. It considers the balance between oversight and flexibility, highlighting effects on engagement and performance.

find out more

The Coaching Shift offers practical guidance on how to adopt a coaching mindset and how to build a coaching skill set to unlock better communication, stronger relationships and high performance in others.

find out more

The book investigates the dynamics between regulatory bodies and firms operating in high-risk industries. It assesses compliance, enforcement strategies, and the balance between safety, accountability, and operational efficiency.

find out more

The book applies power resource theory to contemporary capitalism, analyzing how labor influences economic and political structures. It examines the shifting dynamics of worker power, collective action, and institutional frameworks shaping modern labor relations.

find out more

"Business and Environmental Sustainability" explores the fundamental principles, challenges, and corporate strategies for integrating sustainability into business operations. It examines how companies balance economic goals with environmental responsibility across various functions.

find out more

Cambridge Elements
Corporate Governance

Investing in Innovation

William Lazonick

ISBN: 9781000000000
Price: £14.99 / $19.99

"Investing in Innovation" examines how predatory value extraction affects corporate investment in the U.S. It critiques financial practices that prioritize short-term gains over long-term innovation, exploring strategies to foster sustainable growth and technological advancement.

find out more

Cambridge Elements
Law, Economics and Politics

US Innovation Inequality and Trumpism

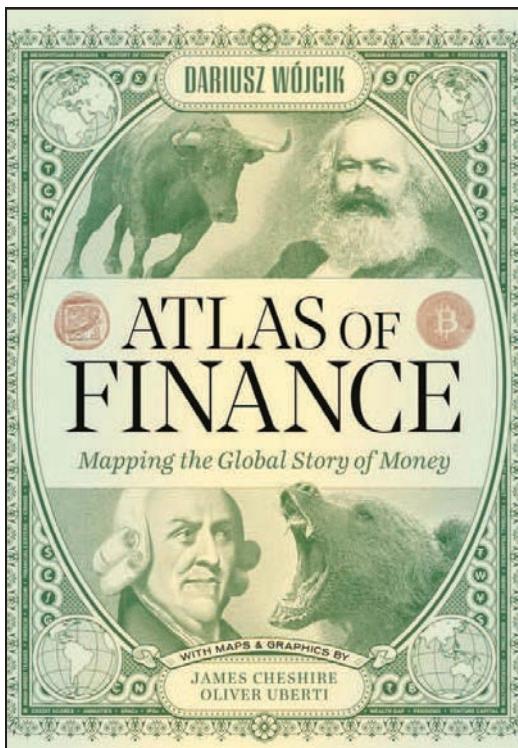

Victor Menaldo and Nicolas Wittstock

ISBN: 9781000000000
Price: £14.99 / $19.99

"U.S. Innovation Inequality and Trumpism" investigates the link between technological disparities and political shifts in the U.S. It examines how uneven access to innovation influences economic inequality, social divisions, and the rise of populist movements like Trumpism.

find out more

"Atlas of Finance" maps the global evolution of money, tracing financial systems, institutions, and economic forces shaping the world economy. It visualizes the interconnected nature of finance, offering insights into historical trends, crises, and the future of monetary structures.

find out more

This book uncovers alternative histories of radio and television distribution, highlighting unauthorized networks, piracy, and grassroots broadcasting. It examines how these informal systems challenged mainstream media control and shaped the evolution of communication technologies.

find out more

"Business on the Edge" explores how companies can thrive while driving positive change in the world's most challenging environments. It examines strategies for balancing profit and social impact, highlighting innovative approaches to entrepreneurship in unstable and high-risk regions.

find out more

"Digital Relationships" applies network agency theory to examine the influence of Big Tech on social and economic interactions. It explores how digital platforms shape connectivity, power dynamics, and user autonomy in an increasingly interconnected world.

find out more

Jan Kregel examines the relationship between financial systems and macroeconomic stability. It explores the role of credit, monetary policy, and financial regulation in shaping economic growth, crises, and long-term sustainability.

find out more

"Flourishing in Museums" explores the concept of positive museology, examining how museums can foster well-being, engagement, and social connection. It highlights strategies for creating inclusive, enriching spaces that enhance visitor experience and cultural participation.

find out more

Ted Ladd and Alessandro Lanteri examine how innovation can drive meaningful change. It explores strategies for developing impactful solutions, balancing creativity with practical execution, and leveraging technology to address global challenges.

find out more

Leadership at the Spiritual Edge explores emerging and non-Western perspectives on leadership and spirituality. It examines diverse traditions, wisdom, and practices that challenge conventional leadership models, offering insights into holistic, ethical, and transformative approaches.

find out more

Making the Green Revolution examines the intersection of agriculture and conflict in Colombia. It explores how agricultural policies, technological advances, and social struggles have shaped rural development, highlighting the complex relationship between food production, politics, and violence.

find out more

Performing Organizational Paradoxes explores the dynamic nature of paradoxes in organizations. It examines dialectical tensions, sociomaterial foundations, and power structures that shape paradoxes, offering insights into how they emerge, persist, and transform within organizational contexts.

find out more

Saving Societies From Within

Innovation and Equity Through Inter-Organizational Networks

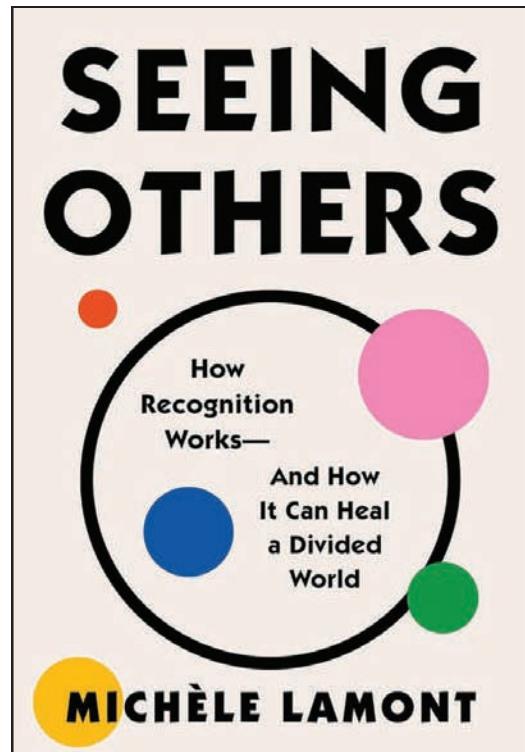

Jerald Hage, Joseph J. Valadez and Wilbur C. Hadden

Saving Societies From Within presents a new model of societal coordination through systemic inter-organizational networks. It explores how these networks foster innovation, equity, and trust, using a case study of Nicaragua's healthcare system recovery after Hurricane Mitch.

find out more

MICHELE LAMONT

Seeing Others by Michèle Lamont explores the power of recognition in a divided world. Drawing on decades of research, it examines how valuing others fosters dignity, inclusion, and social change, offering a path to healing inequalities and redefining worth beyond material success.

find out more

HOW DIFFUSION SHAPES ECONOMIC COMPETITION

JEFFREY DING

Jeffrey Ding explores how nations rise through not just invention, but their ability to spread and adopt new technologies. Using historical case studies, he shows how diffusion—not innovation alone—shapes global power shifts, with lessons for today's AI race.

find out more

Aaron W. Marrs reveals how steamboats and railroads reshaped 19th-century American life. Through books, music, and social customs, steam transit became part of everyday culture—transforming travel, identity, and imagination before the Civil War.

find out more

James E.
Dobson

The Birth of Computer Vision

James E. Dobson traces the Cold War roots of computer vision, revealing how military surveillance shaped today's AI. From early algorithms to facial recognition, he explores how biases and power structures are embedded in the technology we now use daily.

find out more

THE BLACK CEILING

CEILING

HOW RACE STILL MATTERS IN THE ELITE WORKPLACE

KEVIN WOODSON

Kevin Woodson reveals how Black professionals in elite firms face not just bias, but "racial discomfort"—a sense of exclusion and stigma in White-dominated spaces. Drawing on over 100 interviews, he shows how culture, not just discrimination, shapes unequal career outcomes.

find out more

The DESCENT of
ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

A Deep History of an Idea 400 Years in the Making Kevin Padraic Donnelly

find out more

Kevin Padraic Donnelly uncovers 400 years of thought behind AI, showing how ideas about intelligence were shaped by philosophy, social science, and flawed theories of human nature. This deep history reframes AI not as a tech marvel, but as a cultural construct.

Michel
Anteby

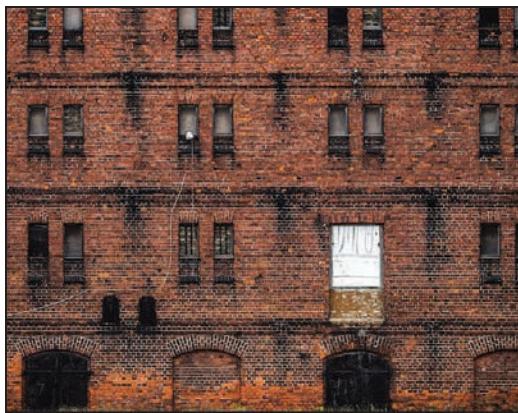

The Interloper

Lessons from Resistance in the Field

The Interloper explores how resistance encountered by field researchers—such as obstruction, silence, or denial—can reveal hidden truths. Michel Anteby shows that these challenges are not barriers, but valuable insights into how communities protect their realities.

find out more

THE LURE OF ECONOMIC NATIONALISM

Beyond Zero Sum

Kenneth A. Reinert

The book addresses the continued appeal of economic nationalism, placing it in both historical and contemporary contexts. It also considers its alternative, a rules-based, multilateral trading system. The book argues that going beyond zero-sum outcomes is better suited to address current problems, including rising tides of ethnonationalism and even pandemics.

find out more

Economy, Society, and Hegemony

The State of Capitalism

Costas Lapavitsas
and the EReNSEP
Writing Collective

find out more

The Pandemic Workplace reveals how the COVID-19 crisis transformed American offices into spaces for democratic learning. Through over 200 interviews, Ilana Gershon shows how workers navigated new rules, questioned authority, and redefined what it means to be governed at work.

SENSORY PERCEPTION AND THE MAKING OF AN INDUSTRIALIZED BEVERAGE

CHRISTY SPACKMAN

The Taste of Water uncovers how efforts to remove flavors from tap water have reshaped our sensory relationship with the environment. Christy Spackman explores how industrial processes turned water into a tasteless product, revealing the hidden labor behind its "neutral" taste.

find out more

MELISSA B. JACOBY

How Our Bankruptcy System
Makes America More Unequal

UNJUST DEBTS

find out more

Unjust Debts exposes how the U.S. bankruptcy system, meant to offer second chances, often deepens inequality. Melissa B. Jacoby reveals how corporations exploit legal loopholes while individuals—especially marginalized groups—face harsher outcomes and fewer protections.

The book offers a provocative analysis of how China's leader used anticorruption efforts to consolidate power. Steven P. Feldman draws on Nietzsche's concept of ressentiment to argue that the campaign served as a ritual of status reversal, channeling public frustration to reinforce authoritarian control.

find out more

Side Hustle Safety Net reveals how gig workers and precarious earners navigated the chaos of the COVID-19 pandemic. Drawing on nearly 200 interviews, Alexandrea J. Ravenelle shows how many turned to side hustles to survive, exposing the cracks in America's outdated unemployment system.

find out more

Una raccolta di saggi che mette in discussione l'europeismo come ideologia, analizzando i limiti democratici, giuridici ed economici dell'Unione Europea. A cura di Stefano D'Andrea, il volume propone una critica radicale al progetto europeo contemporaneo.

find out more

Un saggio provocatorio di Gian Carlo Cocco che denuncia la "guerra occulta" condotta dagli USA contro l'Europa attraverso sorveglianza digitale, manipolazione finanziaria e dominio militare. Un invito a rifondare l'identità europea per affrontare le sfide geopolitiche del presente.

find out more

Emanuele Felice

MANIFESTO per un'altra ECONOMIA e un'altra POLITICA

Un saggio di Emanuele Felice che propone una visione alternativa del capitalismo, unendo economia, storia e filosofia politica. Un manifesto per un modello sostenibile e inclusivo, fondato su giustizia sociale, solidarietà e rispetto per l'ambiente.

find out more

Lorenzo Dal Maso

CAMBIAMENTO CLIMATICO E VALORE D'AZIENDA

Implicazioni teoriche e strumenti operativi per l'apprezzamento del rischio climatico

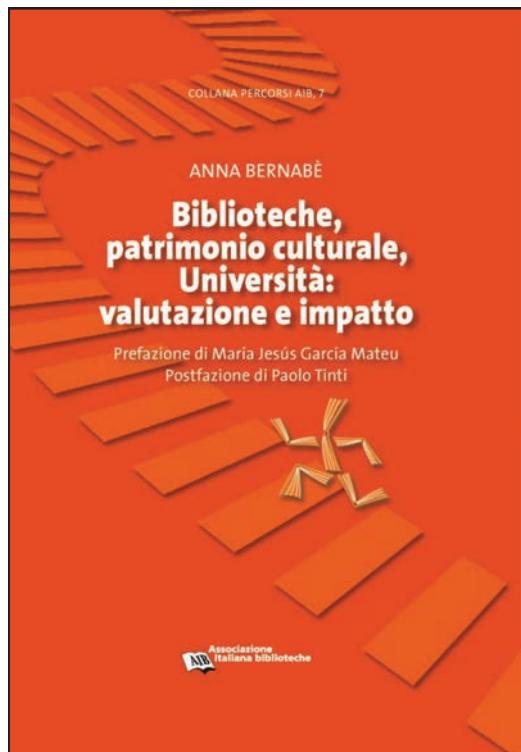

FrancoAngeli

Un saggio di Lorenzo Dal Maso che analizza l'impatto del cambiamento climatico sul valore d'impresa. Propone strumenti teorici e operativi per integrare il rischio climatico nella valutazione aziendale, promuovendo un'allocazione del capitale più sostenibile e competitiva.

find out more

Il volume di Anna Bernabè propone una metodologia per valutare l'impatto sociale delle biblioteche universitarie nella valorizzazione di patrimoni storici e fondi speciali, in linea con la Terza Missione e gli obiettivi dell'Agenda 2030.

find out more

Mauro Bini

La valutazione delle aziende in crisi

Dalla sottoperformance alla liquidazione

Egea

find out more

Un manuale tecnico di Mauro Bini che offre un approccio sistematico alla valutazione delle aziende in crisi, dalla diagnosi iniziale alla liquidazione. Propone modelli analitici per stimare il valore in ogni fase del declino, evitando errori comuni e valorizzando l'analisi fondamentale.

Un saggio di Gianluca Grimalda che intreccia racconto di viaggio e attivismo climatico. Attraverso 28.000 km percorsi senza aerei, l'autore riflette sul cambiamento climatico, la disobbedienza civile e il confine tra responsabilità individuale e collettiva in un mondo in fiamme.

find out more

Un volume celebrativo di Ugo Bianco e Luca Pozza che racconta i 70 anni della Fiera orafa di Vicenza, cuore dell'eccellenza orafa italiana. Con interviste esclusive e immagini d'archivio, il libro intreccia storia, innovazione e identità culturale della "Città dell'Oro".

find out more

Un manuale di riferimento per comprendere e gestire le risorse umane come leva strategica di sviluppo. Gabrielli e Profili offrono un'analisi sistematica di politiche, strumenti e nuove sfide del lavoro, con attenzione a digitalizzazione, sostenibilità e post-pandemia.

find out more

The book explores how motives, opportunities, and attitudes shape economic crime. Petter Gottschalk applies convenience theory to academic studies and case analyses, offering a fresh lens on white-collar criminal behavior.

find out more

What Do Corporations Want? challenges the idea that firms have a single, stable purpose. Timothy Kuhn introduces a Communicative Theory of the Firm, showing how corporate identity and goals emerge from ongoing struggles over meaning, shaped by communication and power.

find out more

The book introduces a theory that links unpaid work to structural inequality in precarious employment. Valeria Pulignano and Markieta Domecka explore how motivations, class, and institutional dynamics shape unpaid labour, drawing on case studies from care, creative, and platform work.

find out more

The Contest for Japan's Economic Future explores how Japan's economic revival depends on a new wave of entrepreneurs. Richard Katz contrasts dynamic "gazelles" with entrenched corporate "elephants," showing how social and technological shifts could tip the balance toward innovation.

find out more

Global Political Economy rethinks how we understand trade, finance, labor, and power in a rapidly changing world. Chenou, Leiteritz e Urrego-Sandoval adopt a problem-based approach to explore global transformations—from climate change to digital capitalism—through diverse, global perspectives.

find out more

The book bridges theory and practice through an African lens. Edited by Charles Gyan, Linda Kreitzer e Somnoma Valerie Ouedraogo, the book highlights locally grounded models and challenges Global North paradigms, offering context-specific insights into sustainable development.

find out more

Eternal Inequality by Christopher Cumo traces the origins of social hierarchy back over 4 million years, arguing that inequality is a fundamental feature of human evolution. Drawing from science and history, the book explores how ranking systems shaped societies from prehistory to today.

find out more

Organizing Workers in the Shadow of Slavery examines how the legacies of slavery and racial inequality shaped labor movements in the U.S. and U.K. Rudi Batzell compares industrial cities like Baltimore and Liverpool to reveal how racism fractured class solidarity and hindered union formation.

find out more

Concise Introduction to Organization Theory offers a clear overview of key theoretical approaches—rationalist, pragmatic, and co-constitutive. Michael Lounsbury and Joel Gehman guide readers in developing a robust scholarly identity by navigating diverse research traditions in organizational studies.

find out more

Entrepreneurship in the Long-Run

Empirical Evidence and Historical Mechanisms

Michael Fritsch and Michael Wyrwich

now
the essence of knowledge

The book explores how historical factors shape regional entrepreneurial activity and its persistence over time. Michael Fritsch and Michael Wyrwich analyze empirical data to show how entrepreneurial cultures influence long-term economic development and resilience.

find out more

Simone Guercini

EE
Elgar

MARKETING AUTOMATION AND DECISION MAKING

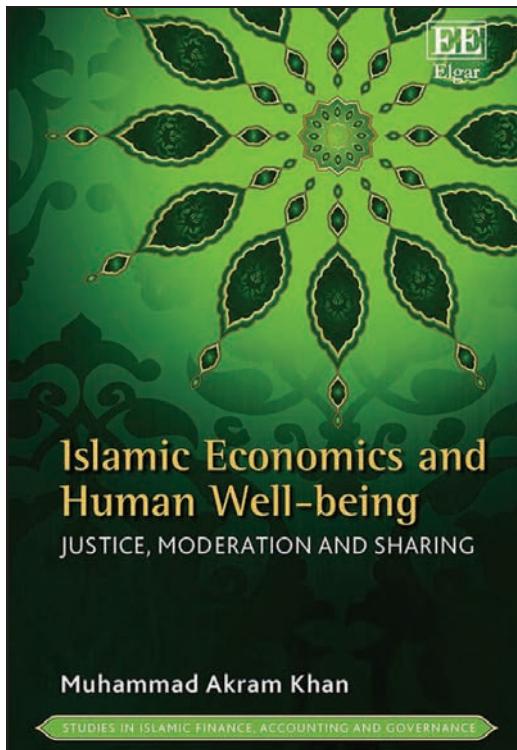

The Role of Heuristics and AI in Marketing

Marketing Automation and Decision Making by Simone Guercini explores how heuristics continue to shape marketers' decisions in the age of AI. Drawing on over a decade of research, the book shows how automation tools can enhance—rather than replace—human judgment in marketing strategy.

find out more

Muhammad Akram Khan

STUDIES IN ISLAMIC FINANCE, ACCOUNTING AND GOVERNANCE

Muhammad Akram Khan offers a comprehensive vision of how Islamic principles—justice, moderation, and sharing—can guide economic behavior. Blending empirical analysis with Qur'anic teachings, the book outlines a framework for a just and compassionate economy.

find out more

ROBOTS AND IMMIGRANTS

WHO IS STEALING JOBS?

KOSTAS MARONITIS
DENNY PENCHEVA

find out more

This book examines how automation and immigration are framed as threats in the labor market. Kostas Maronitis and Denny Pencheva challenge these narratives, revealing how neoliberal policies use both robots and migrants to erode rights and fuel job insecurity.

THE AUTOMATION ADVANTAGE

EMBRACE THE FUTURE OF PRODUCTIVITY AND IMPROVE
SPEED, QUALITY, AND CUSTOMER
EXPERIENCE THROUGH AI

BHASKAR GHOSH
RAJENDRA PRASAD
GAYATHRI PALLAIL OF ACCENTURE

The book offers a practical roadmap for scaling AI-powered automation across enterprises. Written by Bhaskar Ghosh, Rajendra Prasad, and Gayathri Pallail, the book guides leaders in transforming productivity, quality, and customer experience through intelligent, human-centric automation strategies.

find out more